Get to know Saba.

1 We've got an extensive customer list.

Saba helps companies like ADP, Guitar Center, Air Canada, Dell, Yum! Brands, Cornell University, San Diego Zoo, SunRype and many more achieve their talent management goals and drive business results. Companies of all sizes and across a wide range of industries—including healthcare, financial services, manufacturing, education, technology, hospitality and life sciences—trust Saba's suite of learning, performance and engagement tools.

2 We're leading the way in talent management.

Key industry analysts including Gartner, IDC, Fosway, Brandon Hall Group, Bersin by Deloitte, Nucleus Research and Aragon agree: for scalable, secure, collaborative and mobile talent management, Saba delivers like no other.

3 We're award-winning.

The trophy case is growing here at Saba as we continue to rack up awards for innovation. Saba took home two Brandon Hall Group Excellence Awards in 2018: a Gold for "Best Advancement in External Training Technology" and a Silver for "Best Advancement in Social Learning." We were named a Strategic Leader for the fourth consecutive year in the Fosway 9-Grid™ for Learning Systems in 2018, a leader in the Talent Management Technology Value Matrix 2017 report from Nucleus Research, and were positioned as a Visionary in the 2017 Gartner Magic Quadrant for Talent Management Suites Report.

4 We do learning right.

With Saba, customers can have 100% confidence in learning delivery and tracking. Saba's robust workflows, tracking and management capabilities take the guesswork out of delivering and reporting on training—whether an organization has 500 users or 10 million users. New advances in informal and mobile learning mean your people have access to the tools and resources they need to learn any time, any place and in the medium of their choice.

5 We are user-driven.

Today's workforce wants simple, anytime, anywhere access to self-paced learning and development. Whether you're looking for social, mobile, video, micro-learning, personalization, or all of the above, we help you create talent management experiences for your people that are more engaging, more enjoyable and more accessible than ever.

6 We are performance management visionaries.

Out with the old, in with the new. Saba helps organizations transform employee performance and development from static, once-per-year conversations into an ongoing, interactive experience. Our customers use real-time performance interactions—feedback, goal-setting, check-ins, career plans, peer assessments and milestone tracking—to align, engage and inspire their people.

7 We've got intelligence built in.

Just like Amazon and Netflix recommend what to buy or watch, suited to your personal tastes, so too, does Saba. With first-to-market predictive analytics capabilities, Saba delivers a personalized experience, providing recommendations on content, courses, check-in conversations and career paths.

8 We can scale like crazy.

Whether you need to power up your revenue, improve customer satisfaction, deliver a consistent brand voice across a distributed workforce, or even create a new profit center, Saba can help. With a single data model and unified workflows, no other platform is more scalable or flexible.

9 We connect to anything.

With Saba's best-in-class integration capabilities, you can enhance your talent programs, improve integration of data and systems, and streamline processes. Whether you want the simplicity of a true "drag and drop" Marketplace, or you need advanced, custom web APIs or microapps, we give you the ecosystem to do it.

10 We close the engagement gap.

Our philosophy on employee engagement is simple: engagement is the outcome of successful learning and performance management. With products designed to maximize the impact of your learning and enable ongoing performance processes—coupled with revolutionary real-time feedback tools like Saba Pulse 360—Saba provides an integrated means of achieving employee engagement. With Saba, you get the insight you need to determine the right programs, career paths and development opportunities—and the metrics to show how you are moving the needle on business performance.
